

An instructional art camp for girls entering grades 3 - 6, encouraging creativity, imagination, craftsmanship and fun in our sunny, air conditioned facility. Projects include: drawing & painting, ceramics & 3-D, media art . . . etc!

Drop-off

A counselor will be at the double glass doors of the Mooney Hancock Arts Center from 8:55 - 9:10, daily, to escort your daughter(s) to the fourth floor classrooms. The entrance is located behind the school. Travel half way around the circle and stay to the right to continue behind the main building. The entrance is straight ahead.

Lunch

There will be a short break for lunch (brought from home). Beverages and snacks will be available for purchase.

Pick-up

Campers will be escorted down to the drop off doors at 1:30 pm. You may park and meet your camper at the door or stay in your car, in line, to the door. Family invited upstairs to end of week art show on Fridays, beginning at noon.
